special Dispatch to the Virginian.
RICHMOND, Va., January 18.—
L. S. Ely, the former manager of the provision house of C. E. Verdier & Co., who was arrested in New York last week on the charge of embezzling funds from that firm, was taken before the Police Justice this margine for preliminary examinataken before the Police Justice this meraing for preliminary examination. The result was the discharge of young Ely from custody. The Justice after hearing the evidence decided that the young man was a partner in the concern and had a right to do as he pleased with the funds. It appears that had not young Ely left the city so suddenly after an expert accountant was sent here to examine his books there would have been no trouble at all. After his return here as a prisoner he exhibited papers and made statements that helped his case, and his former employer was not disposed to prosecute him. Ely is a nice looking young fellow and his friends are glad he is free.

The impression that the evidence is not going to be strong enough to

The impression that the evidence is not going to be strong enough to convict the man Perker, the only one of the alleged gold brick swindlers now in custody, is growing. Chief of Police Poe hurt the Commonwealth's case yesterday. When testifying in the Norris case he made a statement to the effect that he did not think much of Withers. Lawyer Wendenburg, Parker's conn-Lawyer Wendenburg, Parker's coun-sel, was present and smiled signifisel, was present and smiled significantly when the Chief told what he thought of the Gloucester man. If Withers goes on the stand the lawyers will make him admit that he was drunk and did not remember anything. Norris is still here, expecting and hoping to get possession of Parker and take him to Ohio, where there are big rewards for him, A requisition for Parker has come from the Governor of Missouri. The Federal authorities have the first claim on him for imperson the first claim on him for impersonating an assayer of the mint at Philadelphia.

The Populists are going to make a big fight to capture the offices in Chesterfield county next May. They hope and expect to receive the support of the Republicans, with whom they are willing to make a division of the spoils. I hear it said that Hon. James M. Gregory will probably run for Commonwealth's Attorney. He is an ex-judge of the country. ney. He is an ex-judge of the county, is at present a member of the House of Delegates and lately ran for Congress. Mr. John B. Watkins is talked of for one of the offices to be filled, probably that of treasurer. It is quite likely that before very long there will be a conference of the Populist and Republican leaders in the county in reference to this matter.

Gen. Mahone will probably be chosen to preside over the "fair elections" conference, to be held here next week. He is expected to arrive late in the afternoon of the 22d. It is not known as yet who will accompany him. Mr. Hobson and his Populist brethren are said to be greatly pleased over the facithat Mahone has accepted the in vitation to attend. They would, no that Mahone has accepted the in vitation to attend. They would, no doubt, rather have him with them than any other ene man. His advice will carry much weight in this conference. It would not be surprising to those who have watched this movement closely if it should be determined at the meeting next week to call a convention of all persons of all political faiths who are in favor of reforming the election laws.

Information has been received.

Information has been received here of the death of ex Senstor J. B. F. Mills at his residence in Wise B. F. Mills at his residence in Wise county. It occurred last Saturday from pneumonia. Mr. Mills served in the Senate about four years and was; one of the most picturesque members that body ever had. He was a Republican in politics, but was not an extremist by any means. Mr. Mills was quite a wealthy man and used to set up some big suppers to his brother Senators. He was a very pronounced Baptist in his religious. pronounced Baptist in his religious views and was a liberal contributor to church enterprises.

This distinguished lady has recently returned from a trip through the Holy Land, and her lectures will deal largely with her travels. Marion Harland is a sister of Mir. S. H. The auniversary of Lee's birth will be celebrated here in a very quiet manner to day. All the State and municipal offices will be closed. and municipal offices will be closed. In the afternoon the Howitzers will go out to the Lee monument and fire a salute. At night there will be a big camp fire in the hall of Lee Camp. A number of informal speeches will be made, songs will be aug, anecdotes of the war related and a good time generally will be had.

The troubles at the Richmond College seem not to have come to an end yet. To day one of the students of that institution wrote something on the blackboard which was taken by snother student as a reflection apon one of the traternities. Some words passed between the two, when one of them drew a knife and the other a pistol. Both of them were disarmed by the others present. It is understood that the faculty will hear both sides, and that the matter will not go beyond the college authorities.
